About Songwriters Original Showcase (SOS)

Songwriters Original Showcase - or SOS - is a one-of-a kind acoustic venue for original music that originated in the Philadelphia area in Ambler, PA. Home-base for SOS is Act II Playhouse, a 135 seat professional stage theater, which is across the street from a once nationally famous touring venue called The Ambler Cabaret.

Since the first showcase in February 2001, SOS has been providing up-and-coming independent and national recording artists with a premier performance venue. The tagline for SOS - "a lifeline for songwriters and fans of original music" - sums it up. Founders Rick Denzien and Debra Lee wanted to create a professionally staged listening venue for their own music that would offer other artists a performance showcase, as well.

SOS artists are talented songwriters, recording artists, performers and musicians who have commercially available recordings of their music - a requirement for performing at an SOS showcase. SOS artists are also seasoned professionals who are acclaimed in their own right, nurture their fan base, and have a determined, no-nonsense approach to the "business" of their musical careers.

The venue was met with such enthusiasm from artists, radio, print media, music industry professionals, local businesses, and fans of original music in the Philadelphia area that SOS is now taking the venue "on the road" to colleges and venues within other cities. The primary sponsor of SOS is Slot One Studio in Ambler, PA. In addition to booking SOS artists, Slot One does extensive print media, radio, and Internet promotion for each showcase. Each showcase is also filmed digitally for re-broadcast to various media outlets.

SOS attracts a wide-range of music fans, from high school students to senior citizens. Music heard at SOS follows the AAA radio format, and includes a range of folk to jazz to pop rock -- all original music performed acoustically by the singer-songwriters who created it!

As SOS continues to grow and gain momentum, it plans to expand into the national arena to provide a premier venue that will help launch the careers of artists worthy of having their music heard!
