Popular Czech Artist, Lenka Filipová,
Performing in Ambler on Wednesday, May 4, 8PM at Trinity Episcopal Church Hosts Concert, Ambler Duo Lyra Project Opening Act

AMBLER, PA, April 18, 2011 – Czech singer-songwriter and award – winning classical guitarist, Lena Filipová, will be performing in concert on Wednesday, May 4, 8PM, at Trinity Episcopal Church, Highland Ave. and Bethlehem Pike, Ambler. Ambler-based singer-songwriters, Debra Lee and Rick Denzien who perform as the duo Lyra Project, will be opening.

A versatile artist, Lenka Filipová has been major figure in the popular music scene of the Czech Republic for several decades. Her music includes classical guitar, pop songs, folk ballads, and French art songs (chansons). She speaks and sings in Russian, French and English

She studied at the Prague Musical Conservatory, and at the International Music Academy in Paris, and in 2008 was chosen by the world-renowned singer, Celine Dion, to open at her Prague concert.

She has toured throughout all of Europe, Japan, and North America, and is winner of two prestigious music awards, the Angel Award, and also the Golden Nightingale Award, (equivalent to the Grammy and the American Music Awards in the Czech Republic). She also won the Grand Prix title in the international Guitar Festival in Antil, Holland.

She will perform songs from her latest album, "The Best of Lenka Filipová" which showcases music from three decades of her Gold and Platinum selling albums, including 10 lyrical and 4 classical guitar releases.
